How Name Badges Services Work?

Select the size and type of your name badge

After you have your final headcount, it is time to choose your name badge. Choose from vinyl holders with custom designed inserts to full-colour event badges.

Consider adding a lanyard to your name badge.

Work with our team to nail your badge's design

Your badge should be as unique and memorable as your event. Whether you have a full badge design ready, or a logo and layout in mind, our art team will help bring your vision to life.

Send your attendee list and choose how we organise your badges

Once your design is approved, we will start the printing, stuffing and sorting of your badges. Our team can arrange badges in virtually any way imaginable, whether by first name, last name, company, group or other category.

Have your badges shipped anywhere

Using eco-friendly packing materials, we'll send your order to your office, venue, host hotel or location of your choosing. Every order comes directly from our production facility within Europe.

What customers are saying about ID&C name badges

“I used ID&C to print badges for an event I was hosting, and people literally asked to buy the extras I had on hand. They ship very fast as well.”

By Tarik Fayad

“I was able to design completely custom conference badges and lanyards to my exact specifications thanks to great templates from ID&C”

By Jeremy

“Ordered name badge holders and lanyards. Efficient ordering process, offered the right products, website had all the information I needed to order. Delivered on time as promised.”
